"It is not surprising that the rule of the FPR is continuing while the warmest Polish patriots are being persecuted. The PPR is taking over all sections of the national life, both political and administrative, with the exclusion of all other parties. This may be done openly or secretly, but always systematically and thus more and more dangerously. The nation is only slowly becoming oriented to such a scramble. Even the first man in the nation, the president, we once one of the chief aces of the Komintern and is an homme do configure of the a P / Military Internal Security Corps/.

"Exactly the same can be said for the rest of the men in the government, parliament, the ermy, the militia, the secret police, the provinces, the administration of the State and the economic life of the country.

"It is also well known that the head agents of the party bloc, and especially of our own party, are masked Communists calling themselves democrats or other such names, or they are tools of the PPR serving that party for money, position, or out of fear.

"These people openly demonstrate their Soviet sympathies in spite of the hatred of a nation which knows that Soviet friendship has been paid for by the deportation of millions of its citizens into the Russian interior, by the murder and deportation of tens of thousands of its most generous leaders, sons and daughters of the Polish nation.

"Under the leadership and direction of Russia a democratic Polish republic is being created as a fake, dependent on the Kremlin, with the objective, efter the suppression of those elements opposed to the present government, of uniting Poland with Russia. Agents of the Krumlin operate principally within the PPR; they are loyal to their bosses in whose complete confidence they are prescuting a systematic and determined fight against the Polish nation, never failing to suppress any 'signs of rebellion and rebirth.'

"The Central Committee of the Independent Socialist Party in contrast to the PPR and its leaders, represents a national and sovereign trend in opposition to the Communist program. It wishes further to carry its ideology to the people through a thorough examination of their consciences. It does not hide London's mistakes, but is not pleased with Moscow's results. Orientation towards Moscow or London is of no importance. Warsaw is and has been the only orientation, the symbol of suffering, of resistance, and unbending leadership in the service of honor, freedom, and independence, we are fighting for the country's independence; we demand freedom for the individual; we are fighting anarchy; we are fighting and condemning secret methods of government and subversion which are leading the nation to destruction. To us, the NSZ / National Armed Forces/ who left nothing positive behind them, are not the ideal, but neither is the PPR, today's Targovic, which has surrendered to Moscow.

"First the nation cursed the NSZ calling them agents of Hitler; today it wirses the PFR and the whole "democratic camp" as Moscow's honchmen. We are uphysiding Poilsh tradition; we are calling the nation to a revival which will begin with the flight against Communism. Our aim is to reawaken the democratic principles of t Poland, based on the political structure, the strength of the country, the dis position of the people, and the adaptation of proper methods to make Polend a country of freedom and progress. Any other conception will have neither any value nor any direction. Our position will not be very convenient for the PFI. The PWA is our merciless enumy because we do not recognize its leadership of the nation of the working class. We shall not allow them their comfortable armchairs of authority conquered by force and trickery. We shall not allow them to claim the laurels of the struggle for independence, since it has done less than amone else. for that goal. The PFR wants to deceive the world with figures and statistics of all aspects of our national life; its official declarations are in deep conflict with reality and are only played for effect. The grey life and difficult fate of the working masses is a negation of the formation of a favorable situation in both the political and economic sectors.' The PPR, if it continues to feilow this policy, will destroy agriculture, industry, and commerce, and will arrest the life of the nation. The PPR has led Foland on a road of political, social, and economic experiment which will end in catastrophe, an outcome which even now is being discussed quistly in PPR circles.

"The PPR has chosen Soviet Russia as its model and wants to enforce the Soviet system in Poland despite the interests of the nation. For the last two years Poland has been drowing in a useless ocean of reports, ideas, and conferences. The efforts and labors directed at breaking the nation's back are equally useless. The PPR has reached its climax in this country just as Soviet Russia has done in the international arena. Both are now slowly sinking and one big stroke which will precipitate their fall through internal and external pressure is our heartiest wish for the nation, for ourselver, and for them."
